

HISTORY OF CHANGES IN OWNERSHIP OF APPROPRIATIVE RIGHTS

Original Party and Quantities	Historical Changes in Ownership <sup>1</sup>	Current Party(s) as of June 30, 2018 and Original Quantities <sup>2</sup>
City of Chino (3,670.067 AF)	There have been no changes relating to this right.	City of Chino (3,670.067 AF)
City of Norco (201.545 AF)	There have been no changes relating to this right.	City of Norco (201.545 AF)
City of Ontario (11,373.816 AF)	There have been no changes relating to this right.	City of Ontario (11,373.816 AF)
City of Pomona (11,215.852 AF)	There have been no changes relating to this right.	City of Pomona (11,215.852 AF)
City of Upland (2,852.401 AF)	There have been no changes relating to this right.	City of Upland (2,852.401 AF)
Cucamonga County Water District (3,084.786 AF)	On October 28, 2003, Cucamonga County Water District changed its name to Cucamonga Valley Water District.	Cucamonga Valley Water District (3,084.786 AF)

<sup>1</sup> The information provided in this column is based upon Watermaster’s records and files.

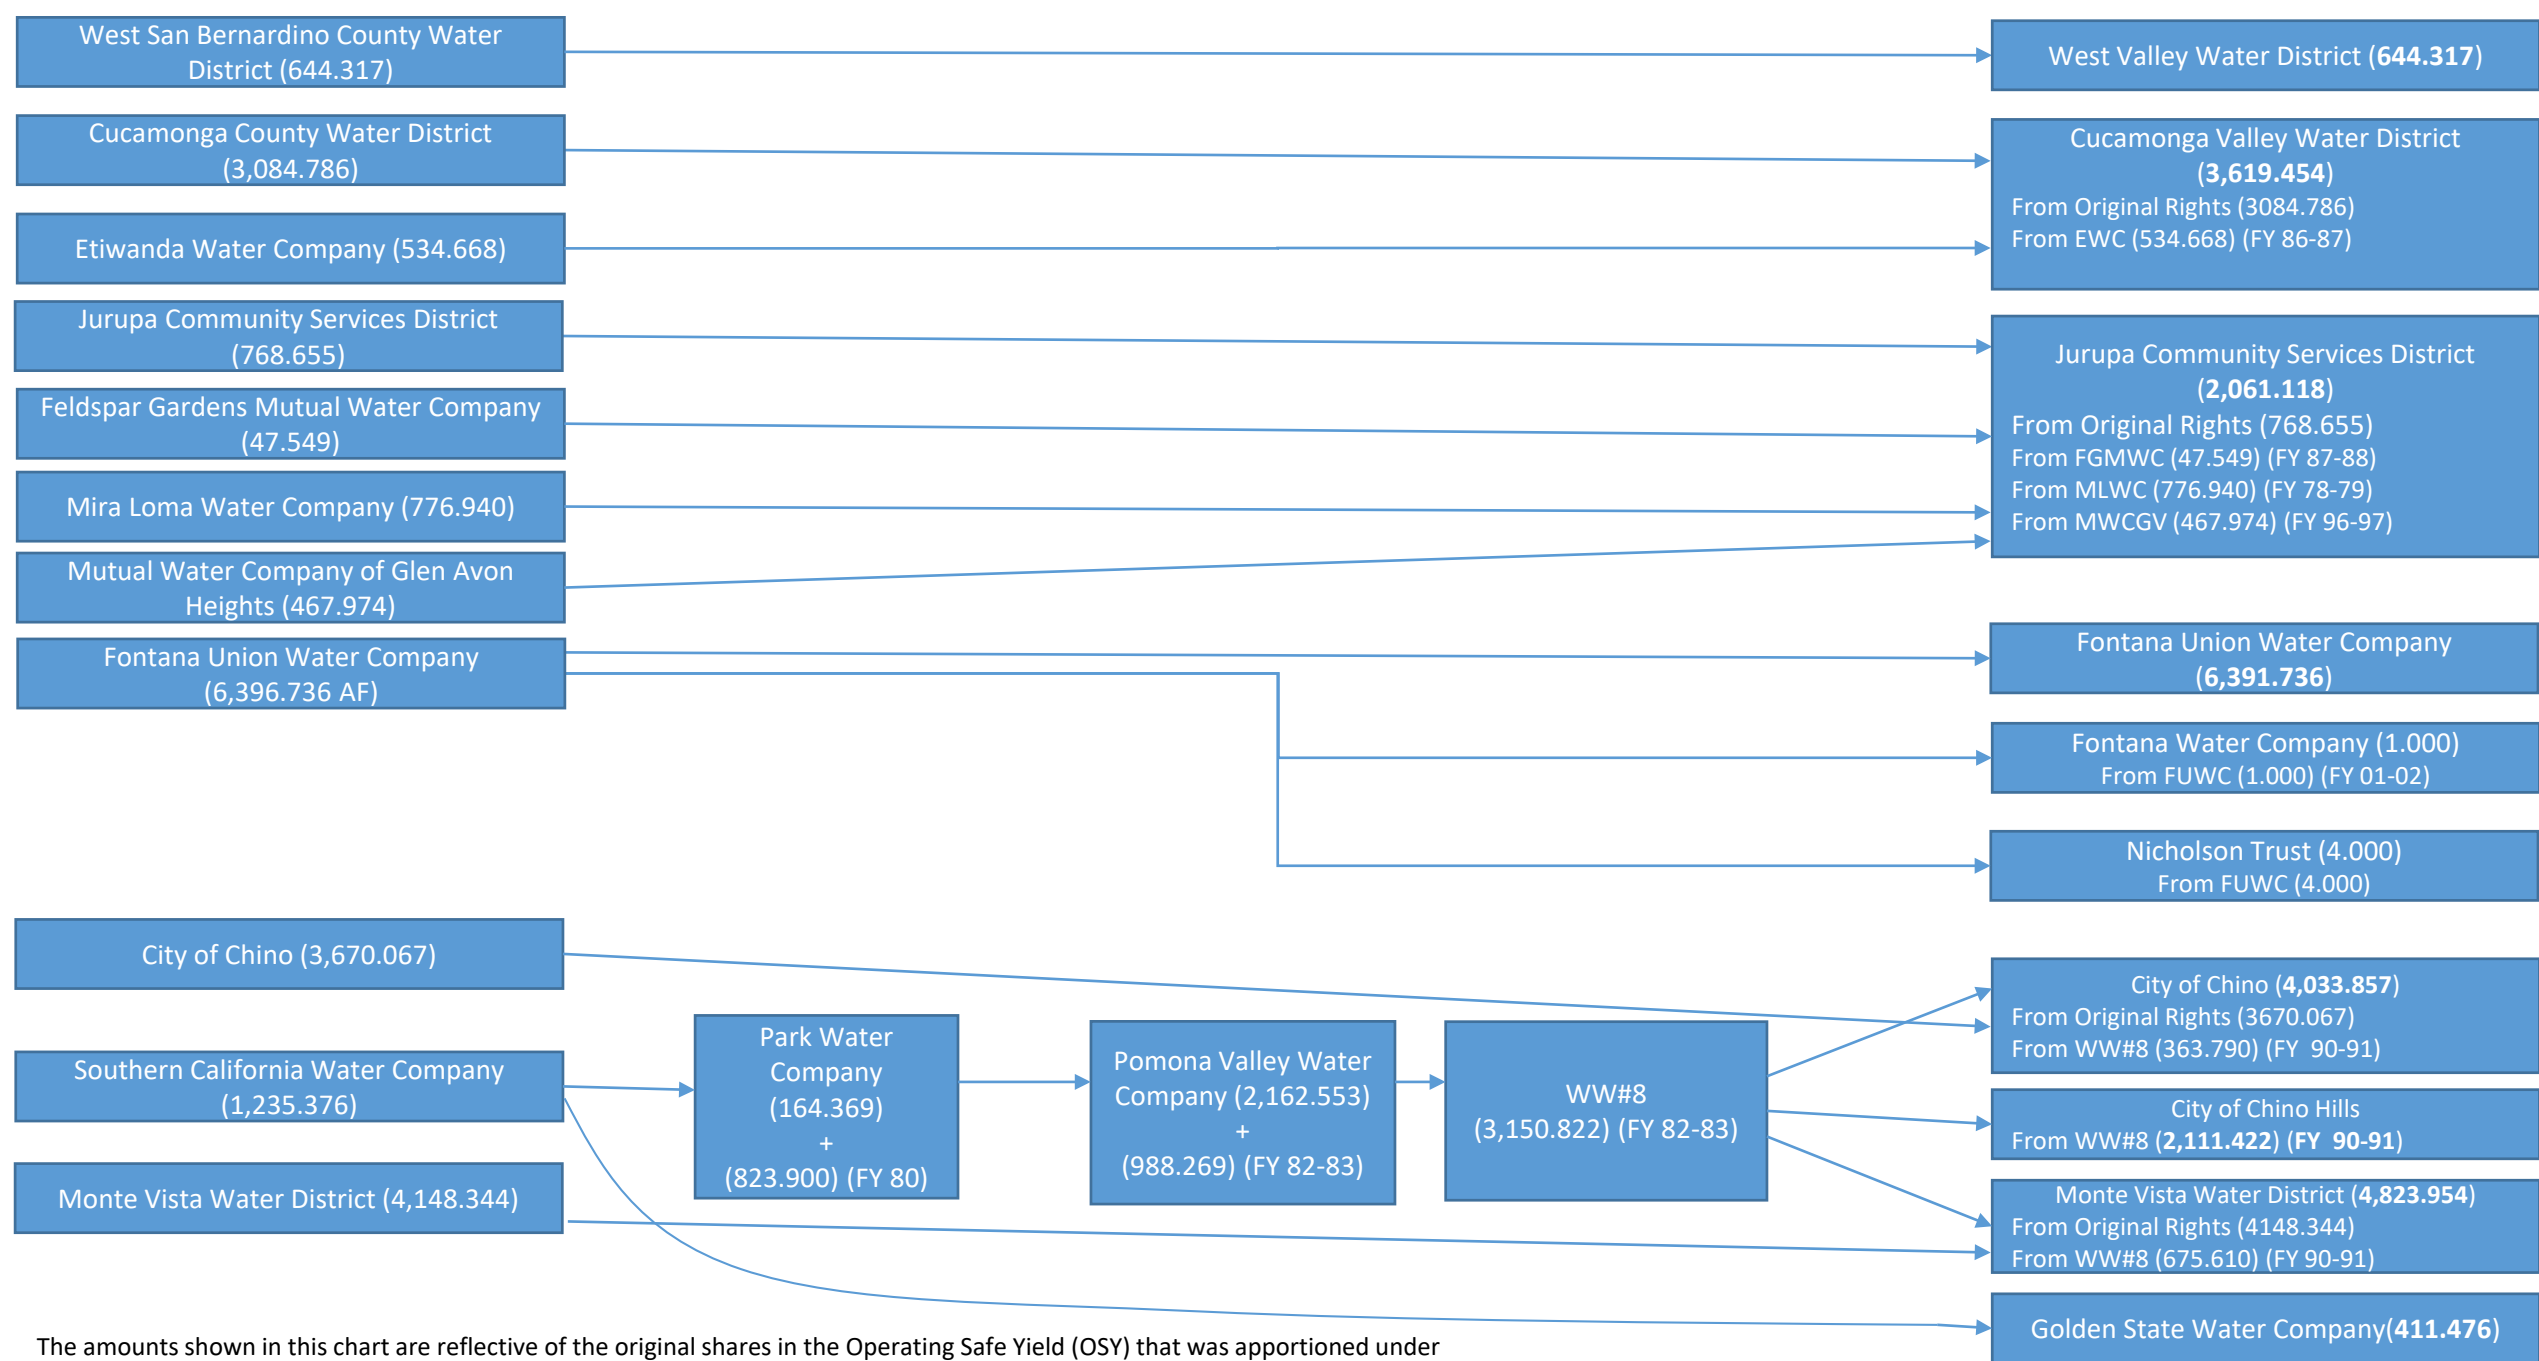

<sup>2</sup> The amounts shown in this column are reflective of the original shares in the Operating Safe Yield (OSY) that was apportioned under the 1978 Judgment and do not include the 5,000 acre-foot decrease in OSY that occurred in FY 2017-18 after the exhaustion of the 200,000 AF controlled overdraft. For information as to each Party’s current rights in OSY, see Appendix E-1 Appropriative Rights.

Original Party and Quantities	Historical Changes in Ownership <sup>1</sup>	Current Party(s) as of June 30, 2018 and Original Quantities <sup>2</sup>
Jurupa Community Services District (768.655 AF)	There have been no changes relating to this right.	Jurupa Community Services District (768.655 AF)
Monte Vista County Water District (4,148.344 AF)	In 1980, Monte Vista County Water District changed its name to Monte Vista Water District.	Monte Vista Water District (4,148.344 AF)
West San Bernardino County Water District (644.317 AF)	On February 6, 2003, West San Bernardino County Water District changed its name to West Valley Water District.	West Valley Water District (644.317 AF)
Etiwanda Water Company (534.668 AF)	On July 1, 1986, Cucamonga County Water District, now Cucamonga Valley Water District, acquired Etiwanda Water Company's right to 534.668 AF of the adjudicated Safe Yield ("SY").	Cucamonga Valley Water District (534.668 AF)
Feldspar Gardens Mutual Water Company (47.549 AF)	On January 26, 1988, Jurupa Community Services District acquired Feldspar Gardens Mutual Water Company's right to 47.549 AF SY.	Jurupa Community Services District (47.549 AF)
Fontana Union Water Company (6,396.736 AF)	On February 28, 2002, the Watermaster Board approved the permanent transfer of 5.000 AF SY from Fontana Union Water Company as follows: 1.000 AF SY to Fontana Water Company and 4.000 AF SY to Nicholson Trust.	Fontana Union Water Company (6,391.736 AF); Fontana Water Company (1.000 AF); Nicholson Trust (4.000 AF)
Marygold Mutual Water Company (655.317 AF)	There have been no changes to this right.	Marygold Mutual Water Company (655.317 AF)
Mira Loma Water Company (776.940 AF)	On October 23, 1978, Jurupa Community Services District acquired Mira Loma Water Company's right to 776.940 AF SY.	Jurupa Community Services District (776.940 AF)

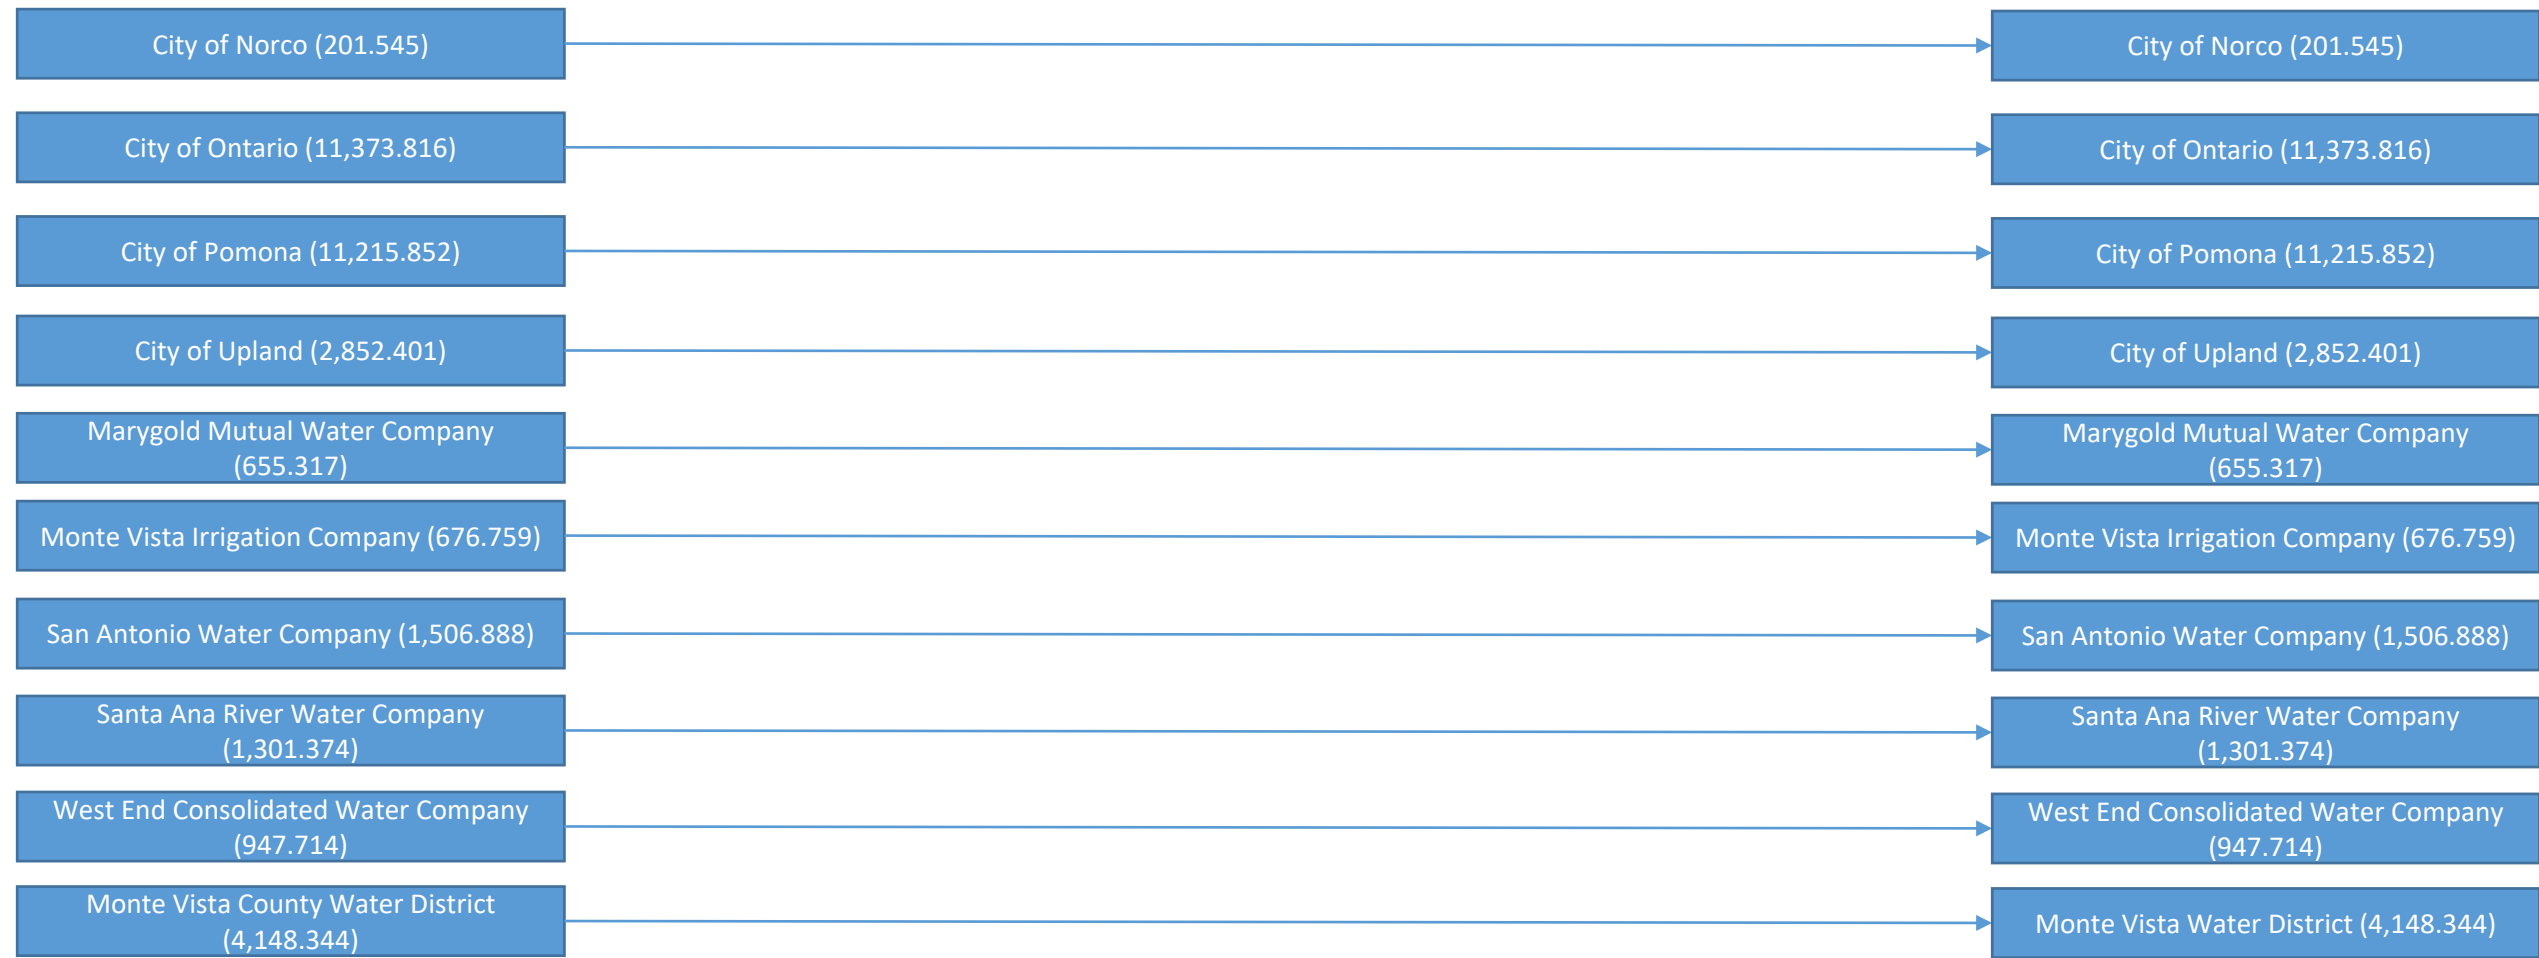

Original Party and Quantities	Historical Changes in Ownership <sup>1</sup>	Current Party(s) as of June 30, 2018 and Original Quantities <sup>2</sup>
Monte Vista Irrigation Company (676.759 AF)	There have been no changes to this right.	Monte Vista Irrigation Company (676.759 AF)
Mutual Water Company of Glen Avon Heights (467.974 AF)	On February 20, 1997, Jurupa Community Services District acquired Mutual Water Company of Glen Avon Heights' rights to 467.974 AF SY.	Jurupa Community Services District (467.974 AF)
Park Water Company (164.369 AF)	On January 10, 1983, Park Water Company permanently transferred all of its safe yield rights (988.269 AF SY), including the rights it acquired from Southern California Water Company as described below, to Pomona Valley Water Company. On August 12, 1983, San Bernardino County Water Works #8 ("WW#8") acquired all of the rights held by Pomona Valley Water Company (3,150.822 AF SY), including the rights originally held by Park Water Company and Southern California Water Company. On July 1, 1990, WW#8 permanently transferred 363.790 AF SY to the City of Chino and 675.610 AF SY to Monte Vista Water District. On December 1, 1991, the City of Chino Hills incorporated and assumed the responsibility for providing public services formerly provided by WW#8. As part of this assumption, the City of Chino Hills assumed WW#8's rights to 2,111.422 AF SY.	City of Chino/City of Chino Hills/Monte Vista Water District (164.369 AF) <sup>3</sup>
Pomona Valley Water Company (2,162.553 AF)	On August 12, 1983, WW#8 acquired all of the rights held by Pomona Valley Water Company (3,150.822 AF SY), including the rights originally held by Park Water Company and Southern California Water Company, as described above. On July 1, 1990, WW#8 permanently transferred 363.790 AF SY to the City of Chino and 675.610 AF SY to Monte Vista Water District. On December 1, 1991, the City of Chino Hills incorporated and assumed the responsibility for providing public services formerly provided by WW#8. As part of this assumption, the	City of Chino/City of Chino Hills/Monte Vista Water District (2,162.553 AF) <sup>1</sup>

<sup>3</sup> The joint listing of parties separated by a "/" does not indicate any joint interest in the right indicated, but indicates that these parties each have succeeded to a portion of the original right decreed in the 1978 Judgment.

Original Party and Quantities	Historical Changes in Ownership <sup>1</sup>	Current Party(s) as of June 30, 2018 and Original Quantities <sup>2</sup>
	City of Chino Hills assumed WW#8's rights to 2,111.422 AF SY.
San Antonio Water Company (1,506.888 AF)	There have been no changes to this right.	San Antonio Water Company (1,506.888 AF)
Santa Ana River Water Company (1,301.374 AF)	There have been no changes to this right.	Santa Ana River Water Company (1,301.374 AF)
Southern California Water Company (1,235.376 AF)	In 1980, Southern California Water Company permanently transferred 823.900 AF SY to Park Water Company. On January 10, 1983, Park Water Company permanently transferred all of its safe yield rights (988.269 AF SY), including the rights it acquired from Southern California Water Company, to Pomona Valley Water Company. On August 12, 1983, WW#8 acquired all of the rights held by Pomona Valley Water Company (3,150.822 AF SY), including the rights originally held by Park Water Company and Southern California Water Company. On July 1, 1990, WW#8 permanently transferred 363.790 AF SY to the City of Chino and 675.610 AF SY to Monte Vista Water District. On December 1, 1991, the City of Chino Hills incorporated and assumed the responsibility for providing public services formerly provided by WW#8. As part of this assumption, the City of Chino Hills assumed WW#8's rights to 2,111.422 AF SY. On October 1, 2005, Southern California Water Company changed its name to Golden State Water Company.	Golden State Water Company (411.476 AFY); City of Chino/City of Chino Hills/Monte Vista Water District (823.900 AF) <sup>1</sup>
West End Consolidated Water Company (947.714 AF)	There have been no changes relating to this right.	West End Consolidated Water Company (947.714 AF)

The amounts shown in this chart are reflective of the original shares in the Operating Safe Yield (OSY) that was apportioned under the 1978 Judgment and do not include the 5,000 acre-foot decrease in OSY that occurred in FY 2017-18 after the exhaustion of the 200,000 AF controlled overdraft. For information as to each Party's current rights in OSY, see Appendix E-1 Appropriative Rights.

The amounts shown in this chart are reflective of the original shares in the Operating Safe Yield (OSY) that was apportioned under the 1978 Judgment and do not include the 5,000 acre-foot decrease in OSY that occurred in FY 2017-18 after the exhaustion of the 200,000 AF controlled overdraft. For information as to each Party's current rights in OSY, see Appendix E-1 Appropriative Rights.