DEPUTY

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
FOR THE COUNTY OF SAN BERNARDINO

CHINO BASIN MUNICIPAL WATER
DISTRICT,

Plaintiff,

vs.

CITY OF CHINO, ET AL.,

Defendant.

Case No. RCV 51010

[Assigned for All Purposes to the Honorable
JOHN P. WADE]

JW/OM
~~[REVISED PROPOSED]~~ ORDER ON WATERMASTER'S MOTION FOR APPROVAL OF TEMPLATE STORAGE
AND RECOVERY AGREEMENT

Having read, reviewed and considered all pleadings filed in support and in response, if any, to the Watermaster's Motion for Approval of Template Storage and Recovery Agreement, including the argument of counsel presented at the August 11, 2009 hearing, and good cause appearing therefore,

THE COURT FINDS THAT:

(1) The proposed Storage and Recovery Agreement will not cause Material Physical Injury, as that is defined in the June 2000 Peace Agreement, so long as the final Agreement is conditioned upon adherence to the Judgment, the Peace Agreement, and the requirement that the recovery of the water does not cause permanent subsidence. The Court hereby incorporates the findings and recommendations of Watermaster's staff, as expressed in the June 25, 2009 Advisory

1 Committee and Board's staff report and supplemental staff report attached to Watermaster's Motion
2 as Exhibit "C."

3 (2) The proposed allocation of benefits from implementation of the Template Storage
4 and Recovery Agreement, as described in Watermaster's Motion and in the June 25, 2009 staff
5 report and supplemental staff report to the Advisory Committee and Board, will provide broad
6 mutual benefits consistent with the Peace Agreement. To meet the broad mutual benefit standard,
7 Watermaster conditioned its approval on a commitment that the revenues received from the auction
8 that are in excess of the purchase price set forth in the Purchase and Sale Agreement, be placed in 9 an interest bearing escrow account and earmarked by Watermaster for the following purpose:

10 "Upon receipt of a written recommendation from the Appropriative Pool
11 and further Board approval, Watermaster may authorize the use of excess
12 revenues received from the Purchase and Sale Agreement for capital
13 improvements to be spread equitably among management zones and that 14 are: (i) designed, approved and scheduled for timely implementation under 15 the Court approved Recharge Master Plan or any approved yield
16 enhancement/preservation program and (ii) will facilitate Watermaster's
17 recharge goals of maintaining hydrologic balance within each
18 Management Zone and the Basin. "Capital improvements" means
19 physical facilities that will be actually used in the production, storage,
20 treatment and distribution of water that will recharge the Chino Basin, 21 including but not limited to recharge basins, injection wells, pipelines and 22 water supplies. The qualifying capital improvements may facilitate 23 recharge directly or indirectly through approved in-lieu strategies."

24 The Court's approval of the Template Storage and Recovery Agreement is conditioned upon 25 compliance with this condition. Watermaster shall provide an accounting to the parties on an 26 appropriate basis and in a form reasonably intended to allow the parties to evaluate Watermaster's 27 compliance with this condition. If any party believes that Watermaster is not in compliance with 28 the condition, then it may file an objection and request review by the Court. The objecting party shall meet and confer with Watermaster prior to the filing of its objection.

(3) The Court finds that the proposed Template Storage and Recovery Agreement contains sufficient detail to allow the Court to evaluate and approve the Template Agreement.
However, because the Template Agreement is not yet in the final form, the Court hereby Orders

1 Watermaster to provide notice to all parties when the Template Agreement is in the final form.
2 Within 30 days of such Notice, any party who believes that the final Agreement differs substantially
3 from the Template Agreement, may provide Watermaster with a notice that the party believes the 4 Agreement differs and that this difference causes harm to that individual or to the Basin. In such 5 event, Watermaster will schedule a hearing with the Court to consider the matter. The scope of 6 such hearing shall be strictly limited to that aspect of the final Agreement that differs from the 7 Template Agreement and the harm caused to the moving party or to the Basin. If no such notice is 8 received by Watermaster within 30 days of Watermaster's Notice, the final Agreement shall be 9 presumed approved.

10 (4) The export of the water that will be auctioned is not prohibited by the Judgment and 11 does not trigger the replenishment requirement of Judgment, Exhibit "H," Paragraph 7(b).
12 However, this finding is specifically limited to the quantity of water that is the subject of the 13 Template Storage and Recovery Agreement. This finding may not be used as precedent for future 14 export proposals and this finding shall not apply to any water placed in to the storage account in 15 addition to the initial amount.

16 On the basis of the foregoing, Watermaster's Motion is hereby GRANTED.
