RESPONSE TO CHINO HILLS
EX PARTE MOTION

21 Watermaster opposes the requested continuance sought by the City of Chino Hills because it 22 is not warranted under the facts of the case and it will cause undue hardship unless the resolution of 23 Chino Hills' concerns is made coterminous with the balance of the Watermaster efforts to implement
24 the Optimum Basin Management Program. On August 23, 2007 Watermaster General Counsel
25 presented a request by Chino Hills for a continuance on the presently scheduled September 13, 2007
26 hearing. The Watermaster Board declined the request because of deep concern over the tight 27 schedule facing the parties arising from previous orders of this Court regarding scheduling and the 28 completion of the suite of measures commonly referred to as the Peace II measures.

1 Although Watermaster respects the right of the City of Chino Hills' desire to oppose the 2 Long Term Plan for Management Zone Number 1 ("Long Term Plan"), Watermaster is mindful that 3 the parties to the Judgment are likely to be unwilling to proceed with the balance of the Peace II
4 measures with the issues arising from the Long Term Plan remaining unresolved. The Stakeholder 5 Non-Binding Term Sheet dated May 23, 2006 previously transmitted to the Court for its 6 consideration and constituting the cornerstone of Watermaster's present efforts contemplates final 7 approval on all elements. One such element is the Long Term Plan.

8 Continuing the resolution of the adequacy of the Long Term Plan beyond the time period
9 established for the approval of the Peace II process may create substantial and unnecessary financial 10 hardships for the parties requiring an assessment for replenishment water that may be required to 11 off-set desalter production. Present estimates are that this liability may be in excess of $5,000,000
12 for 2007. (See Attached Declaration of Michael T. Fife)

13 Moreover, the legal argument in support of the request mischaracterizes the Long Term Plan
14 and inappropriately links a finding that the Long Term Plan does not trigger Watermaster financial 15 responsibility under a contract to which Watermaster is not a party. To the contrary, Watermaster 16 acts pursuant to the mandates of the Judgment and the orders of this Court. It has been ordered to 17 prepare a Long Term Plan and it has done so. The Court is free to determine whether Watermaster
18 has complied with prior orders of the Court without construing the City of Chino Hills' contractual 19 right against other parties to the contract, as opposed to evaluating Watermaster's duties.

20 Accordingly, Watermaster requests that if the Court is inclined to grant a continuance and 21 authorize discovery as requested by Chino Hills that it make the final resolution of the adequacy of
22 the Chino Hills opposition coterminous with the Court's orders on the balance of the Peace II
23 measure. If this entails continuing the hearing into 2008, then the court should provide relief to the 24 other potentially impacted parties in the Basin by authorizing Watermaster to delay replenishment
25 assessments associated with the Desalters until the completion of the hearing.

1 ARGUMENT

2 On April 2, 2007 and April 30, 2007, Watermaster made two filing with the Court that 3 addressed the status of implementation of the Optimum Basin Management Program ("OBMP"), the 4 status of future desalting plans for the Chino Basin, and the status of the Long Term Plan. The filings
5 included an "Exhibit C" which was a detailed schedule for the completion of the tasks described 6 above. Collectively, all of these tasks are referenced by the parties and by the Court in its Order, as 7 the "Peace II Agreement process." These filings resulted in an Order of the Court dated May 24,
8 2007 which contained numerous deadlines for Watermaster to meet and which required Watermaster
9 to report to the Court any delay that goes beyond 30 days. (Order, 4:19.) The Court ordered 10 Watermaster to submit a motion for Court approval of the Long Term Plan by July 24, 2007 and to 11 set a hearing on that motion no later than September 30, 2007. (Order, 3:2-4.)

12 The motivation for Watermaster's filings and for the Court's May 24, 2007 Order is that the 13 failure to complete the Peace II Agreement process by the end of 2007 will have tremendous 14 consequences for all parties in the Chino Basin. If the management strategy known as Basin Re-
15 Operation has not been authorized by the end of 2007, then Watermaster will be forced to begin the 16 process under the Judgment to replenish the increased desalter production that occurred in 2007 from 17 not just the Chino I Desalter, but also from the recently operational Chino II Desalter. This will have 18 significant financial consequences for all the parties in the Chino Basin, and it will also require 19 actions which inhibit the progress toward achieving Hydraulic Control, which in turn will have 20 consequences with respect to the Regional Water Quality Control Board and the Basin Plan
21 Amendments. The Court's Order sought to facilitate the avoidance of these problems by imposing a 22 rigid schedule which would lead to an approval of the Peace II Agreement in early November.

23 Under the "Stakeholder Non-Binding Term Sheet", Watermaster is to develop guidance 24 criteria and a long-term plan. The Stakeholder Non-Binding Term Sheet specifies that, "The 25 guidance criteria and the long-term plan will be incorporated into the final binding agreement."
26 (Term Sheet, p.25.)

27 Watermaster's Motion describes in detail the process for development of the Long Term 28 Plan. This has been an ongoing process that has spanned many years. The technical basis for the

1 Long Term Plan was complete in 2005 and was presented to the Special Referee and her technical 2 assistant at a workshop dated May 25, 2005. (Motion, 6:10.) The Long Term Plan was eventually 3 distributed to the parties in May 2007 through the Pool process and to the Advisory Committee and 4 the Board. In June of 2007, the Long Term Plan was again distributed through the Pool process and
5 to the Advisory Committee and the Board for approval. (Motion, 8:6.) At this time Watermaster's
6 Motion was also distributed for approval along with the Long Term Plan in the agenda packages.

7 The City of Chino Hills has thus been aware of the technical basis for the Long Term Plan
8 for at least over two years. It has had a copy of Watermaster's motion since at least June of this year.
9 Now, two weeks before the hearing, it seeks a continuance in order to prepare for the hearing. The 10 request does not explain why Chino Hills has waited until this late date to raise its issues, nor does it 11 explain what type of information it seeks that has not been available to it already over the past two 12 years.

13 On the merits, the City of Chino Hills' largest problem is its failure to establish any link
14 between the Long Term Plan and any rights it has under Peace Agreement paragraph 5.4(e).
15 Watermaster has not sought any determination of the City's rights. Rather it has sought only a Court
16 determination that under prior orders of this Court, its adoption of a completely voluntary plan does 17 not trigger an obligation under a contract to which it is not a party.

18 The City's papers offer no basis for its assertion that its rights under which Watermaster is 19 not a party, whatever they may be, are miraculously foreclosed by Watermaster submitting a
20 voluntary Long Term Plan to the Court

21 As for the City of Chino Hills' objections to the contents of the filing as someone being in 22 breach of previous assurances of confidentiality, Watermaster sees no such violation. We have 23 enclosed a copy of the agreement allegedly giving rise to the concern and on the face of the 24 agreement, the scope of the confidentiality is limited and does pertain to the subject matter identified
25 by the City. (Attached as Exhibit B)

26 Accordingly, Watermaster requests that if the Court is inclined to grant a continuance and 27 authorize discovery as requested by Chino Hills that it make the final resolution of the adequacy of 28

1 the Chino Hills opposition coterminous with the Court's orders on the balance of the Peace II
2 measure. If this entails continuing the hearing into 2008, then the court should provide relief to the
3 other potentially impacted parties in the Basin by authorizing Watermaster to delay replenishment
4 assessments associated with the Desalters until the completion of the hearing.
